FULTON & EDWARDS.

A VALUABLE BIRD.

The great grasshopper raid upon Nebraska and Kansas a few years ago led to the better protection of birds, particularly quail. Previous to that time both sportsmen and professional hunters from all the cities of the Union took a yearly hunt and the slaughter of quails, ducks and turkeys was almost incredible. Tons upon tons were shipped into Chicago and St. Louis and even New York and Philadelphia. The result was, the grasshoppers had their own way and multiplied exceedingly. The quail is particularly fond of both grasshoppers and their eggs, and where they are at all numerous the destruction is enormous. They are besides a valuable article of food and add not only to the dainty table of the rich, but help to fill the poor man's pot as well. In addition to these uses the quail is a game bird of the first order and commands the skill of both man and dog in its capture. We publish a column of letters from the Chicago Field on the migratory quail of southern Europe, which we hope may prove both interesting and profitable under the present circumstances. We very much fear that the Truckee meadows are doomed to be overrun in 1880 to some extent, and in 1881 and 1882, very seriously by the grasshopper. We do not expect that any addition to the stock of birds in Nevada and eastern California could be made in time to serve in the crisis, but they will get a good hold and be a great help in future years. They will flourish and increase beyond all doubt.

RENO'S SURROUNDINGS.

Scenically, Reno is the most favorably located town in the country. Although there is much sameness in the different landscapes of the sage brush State, yet in nature there is infinite variety, and the brown face of this new land is full of interest to the lover of the wild and grand. The hills east of the valley are like dozens of other ranges between Cheyenne and Reno, but the great western boundary rises in unapproachable majesty from the bank of the river to banks of everlasting snow thousands of feet above. Over the Sierras south-west of us, come the finest cloud effects and storm bursts ever witnessed by mortal man. Often when all is sunshine and calm in the valley, great banks of cloud roll down the mountain sides, hiding the summits for hours and days; at other times beautiful light flying clouds, such as the spring poets call fleecy, filmy lace, soften the harsh outlines. The gathering storm, the wild war between the sweeping blast and the sturdy pines, the heaving snow, are spread out before us like a scene on the stage, and often in the wet weather heat clouds move about in aimless masses, casting a shadow on the mountain side which may be seen for miles. The face of the landscape has been very materially changed by the loss of the fine timber which formerly covered it.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Says the San Francisco Republic: While the bleak prairies of Dakota are filling up at the rate of 50,000 a year, Nebraska increasing 60,000 and Kansas as many, California with twice the area, and far greater variety of resources, receives less than 40,000 annually. In another place it says: California can probably claim more millions than any other country of equal population on the globe. Put the two facts together, and it is possible that an important lesson may be learned. The Call's reporter says that while on the scaffold Anderson "was masticating a good-sized piece of tobacco and occasionally ejected the dissolved nicotine upon the floor of the scaffold." The truth is he simply took a big chew of tobacco, which caused him to spit as is usual in such cases. Such exaggeration seems out of place in the account of an execution.

The Reno Gazette says: "We are not aware that Reno will be represented at the Dye-Anderson necktie party in Sacramento to-day. It is better thus." A guilty conscience needs no accuser. That journal probably feels that Reno ought to have been reprimanded at the execution. Stock Report. The Stock Report appears to be laboring under a constitutional inability to tell the truth lately. The item was taken from the Journal. A GAZETTE reporter witnessed the execution and telegraphed the facts to his paper.

The Eureka Sentinel has entered upon its 17th volume. It has grown up with the town of Eureka, and prospered as it has prospered. It has always been well edited, and always been a good newspaper. It ranks among the first journals of the state and aside from its political heresies has our good wishes.

The Bodie Standard copies and credits an article to the Chronicle which the Chronicle had credited to the GAZETTE. If it had been credited to the Journal, as the papers usually do, we would not have said a word, but it is not fair to go fifty miles away to credit it.

The Virginia Chronicle speaks of the Rentz minstrels as "females who carry their skirts at half mast." From the future they created, we supposed they sailed under bare poles.

All this talk about reducing the President's salary is pure bosh. The Republicans will never do it, and the Democrats never would either if they had their man in the chair.

The World's Fair.

The new World's Fair building is to be located on Manhattan Island, the site to be between and taking in a part of Riverside and Morning side parks. The draft of a bill to Congress has been adopted, providing for the holding of an international exhibition of arts, manufactures and products of the soil and mine, in the city of New York. The act provides for a commission of one delegate from each State and Territory, to be known as the United States International Commission, to prepare and superintend the execution of a plan for holding the exhibition. No compensation is to be paid from the United States Treasury to these commissioners, nor is the United States to be liable for any expense attending the exhibition. This commission is to fix the date. The bill also provides for a board of finance, who shall have power to open a book for subscriptions of a capital stock not exceeding $10,000,000, and it further provides for the organization of a board similar to those of the Centennial exhibition.

Lyon County Items.

The following items are taken from the Lyon County Times of Saturday morning:
The hills round about are bright with wild flowers of the liveliest hue.
The Eureka mill, on the Carson river, will start up on Sierra Nevada ore early next month.
In conversation the other day with John Blinnett, foreman of the Sutro tunnel, he said the ditch would be cut by the 20th of next month, and by that time there would not be working over 200 men in the tunnel.
Alexander Blakely, who was in charge of this paper during the last year of Mr. Kenyon's proprietorship, informs us that Mr. Kenyon's estate will net from $7,500 to $10,000. Mrs. Kenyon is in San Francisco, but will return to her relatives in Indiana as soon as the estate is settled.

Lake Tahoe Matters.

Says the Enterprise: Captain Avery, of the steamer Niagara, Lake Tahoe, who has been on the Comstock for a day or two, says there will be a greater number of visitors at the lake this summer than ever before, particularly parties from foreign countries. This he knows through letters received from various quarters. A party of about a dozen arrived just as the captain was leaving the lake. Some forty tourists, who have gone on to the Yosemite falls, will shortly return to the lake.

There are now running regularly on the lake the following steamers: Niagara, Meteor, Truckee and Standard. The old steamer Governor Bladell and the Hi-Yah are also on the lake and in running order, but do not make regular trips.

The Ice Mountains at Niagara.

Despite the warm weather that has prevailed hereabouts for the past few days the huge ice mountain below the American Falls seems to have lessened but little in size. It still looms up some seventy odd feet in the air, while the Shadow of the Rock dressing rooms are completely hidden from sight. It is still quite an undertaking to climb to the summit of the ice mountain, and last Wednesday two young ladies, fearing to trust their shoes on the ice, deliberately took off their shoes and stockings and sealed the mountain in their bare feet.

Grant Likely to Put the Excursion Out of Tune.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Definite information from Grant's party is to the effect that he will take the last steamer in June, from Japan, arriving in San Francisco about August. After looking around California, the general has decided to spend some time about Oregon and various parts of that region, where he was stationed in his earlier army days. As has already been reported he is also very desirous of making an extended tour of Mexico.

Grasshoppers Moving.

The Lyon County Times says: The grasshoppers have begun to move in good earnest from their breeding places in the foothills of the Palmyra range, and are spreading in all directions.

The pests seem to be spreading up the banks of the Carson at the rate of a couple of miles a day. In a few days they will probably have invaded Eagle valley. They will then proceed to Washoe valley, then north to Surprise valley and Oregon. It begins to look as if all western Nevada would suffer from their depredations.

The second wood drive of the season is being started at the head of the Carson river.

MARRIED.

JOSE-FELTON-In Reno, May 31st, 1879 by Rev. C. McAlister, Alfred Jose to Miss Jennie Felton.

DIED.

JONES-In Reno, June 2nd, 1879, Josephine Jones, daughter of Evan and Mary A.
Jones, aged 7 years, 7 months and 19 days.
The funeral will take place from the Episcopal church to-morrow at 2 o'clock p.m.
Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

JOTTINGS.

A team loaded with goods for Surprise Valley, went out to-day.
The Sunday school excursion train will pass here about 3:30 to-morrow morning.
John Rapp has rallied considerably from his injuries, and was reported much better yesterday.
To-day has been hot enough for a forest of the orthodox place of future punishment.
Some repairs have been made on the sidewalk on the west side of Virginia street, but more are needed.
The prize fighters finished their terms in jail yesterday, and were released last night.
Married men will be supplied with plausible excuses to account for staying out to-night at this office for a small consideration.
N. G. Traffy, florist, evacuated Reno Saturday night, leaving considerable baggage in the shape of unpaid bills in the hands of his creditors.
The Truckee is booming full, and quite muddy. The warm weather of the last few days melting the snow very rapidly in the mountains is what has caused the rise.
"Poverty is no disgrace," but the impecunious young man thinks when he hears his girl hint at ice-cream that disgrace would be preferable to the sensation he experiences.
Mr. Evans requests the GAZETTE to inform the public that no tampering with the water pipes will be allowed. If anything is wrong with them he will see that it is immediately remedied upon information.

AN ELOPEMENT.

A Virginia City Woman's Escapade—A Husband's Hot Pursuit.

Last Friday night a gay Lathario came down from the sinful city of the Comstock on the lightning with another man's wife, and put up at one of our hotels. The deserted husband had got wind of the elopement, and came down in a buggy to intercept the runaways. A friend of the fleeing couple saw the husband searching for his recreant spouse and her lover, and made haste to apprise them of his presence in town. Only a few moments were necessary to hire a buggy at a lively stable, and getting into it the couple drove off into the darkness like mad. The husband's quest proving unavailing he returned to Virginia. Where his wife and her companion went to is not known. The names of the parties figuring in this domestic drama could not be learned.

Doings of the Commissioners.

The county commissioners met today for their regular monthly meeting.
A petition and remonstrance of taxpayers, protesting against the awarding of the contract for putting a fireproof vault and burglar-proof safe in the court-house, to C. C. Powning, was read. After some discussion the following order was passed: Ordered that the orders heretofore made in relation to the awarding of the contract for the building of a fireproof vault and the purchasing of a burglar proof safe and time lock be amended on account of the same not being legal, and that the county clerk advertise for bids for the same for a period of thirty days, fully setting out the plans and specifications of the work required in the advertisement, each bid to be accompanied by plans and specifications.

Roll of Honor of Peavine School.

The following named have not been absent nor tardy during the month ending May 30th, 1879: Lottie Timblin, Persia Lemmon, Mary Hogan, Flossy Lake, Eddie Merrill, John Timblin, Bonnie Timblin, Lemmie Osborne, Walter Timblin, Joseph Hasman. The following list includes the names of those pupils whose average standing in scholarship and deportment is 90 per cent. and over: Lottie Timblin, 100; Persia Lemmon, 100; Mary Hogan, 99; Eddie Merrill, 99; Lemmie Osborne, 98; John Timblin, 95; Louis Lemmon, 99; Bennie Timblin, 90; Joseph Hasman, 98.
E. BARBER, Teacher.

A Lumber War.

The lumber business in Eureka is in a state of agitation. The Eureka Lumber Company, composed of W.
O. Mills, P. Everts and Edgar Mills, has been putting in square timber at $52 50 per thousand. Outside parties made a contract recently with the Eureka Consolidated for $45 per thousand for a million feet. The old company now offers to put it in for $37 50. The fight is of no interest to outside parties unless the railroad, which is owned by the Mills family, cuts rates for themselves lower than for the public.

A Small Train.

A new train all under one roof has just been turned out of the Sacramento shop to be used on the northern railroad. The locomotive is entirely hid from view, the smoke stack projecting about 4 inches above the roof.
The baggage, mail and express compartments occupy the middle of the car and the back end will seat 40 passengers. On a trial trip to Rocklin the little train made 40 miles an hour for 20 miles. It is 60 feet long and weighs only 20 tons.

Office Change.

A change has taken place in the management of the Western Union telegraph office at this point, J.
McDonald succeeding A. H. Wilbur.
Mr. Wilbur has been in charge of the office for three years and has given universal satisfaction, paid close attention to business, and made no mistakes. His leaving Reno is regretted by all patrons of the office, and the citizens generally.

Faith in the Seeress.

Two men from Virginia City are digging for coal about six miles north of Wadsworth, on the recommendation of Mrs. Bowers, the Washoe seeress. They have run a tunnel in several hundred feet and found a vein an inch and a half thick. They are now sinking.

Fast Horses Going East.

The fast trotting horses Raven, Sam Purdy, Mark L. and Lottery went east on the overland Sunday night. They are bound for Chicago, and will measure their speed with some of the eastern cracks.

Joe Murphy Coming.

Joe Murphy, the celebrated Irish comedian, will play one night in Reno shortly. He has been meeting with enthusiastic receptions in all the California cities, and the dramatic critics speak highly of him.

Of Interest to Buyers.

Attention is called to the price list in the new ad. of Strassburger & Isaacs, successors to the firm of Grey & Isaacs, published in this issue. By looking over it purchasers will find something to their advantage.

The Great Eastern I X L.

Shelves and counters full of goods run the entire length of the Great Eastern I X L. They contain everything wearable.

PERSONAL.

Judge King convenes court in Carson to-day.

A. D. Meacham, of Cornucopia, is registered at the Lake house.

E. Olinhouse, of Wadsworth, is in town attending the meeting of the county fathers.

Eugene Harvey, formerly superintendent of the Rye Patch mine, was in town yesterday.

Isaac L. Requa came down from Virginia last night to meet his wife, who was a passenger on the overland.

Deputy U. S. Marshal McLain took Bruce Baldwin, who is under arrest for selling whiskey to Indians, to Carson this morning for trial.

D. H. Jones, formerly superintendent of the vast wood and lumber business of Mackey & Fair, is now in charge of the Grand Prize mine at Tuscarora.

Mrs. C. M. Bailey, wife of Captain Bailey, Commandant at Fort Bidwell, and daughter of Alex. G. Abell, chairman of the Republican state central committee of California, went north this morning on the stage.

A Perilous Trip.

[Truckee Republican.] Josh Moody has been the first to cross the Sierra this year with a band of horses. He arrived this week. For a distance of twenty-five miles he found four feet of snow. The band of horses which he was driving would flounder along, sinking in the snow from one to three feet at every step.
At the steep cliff this side of Card-well's the horses would lose their footing and slide forty or fifty yards. Two or three came near landing in the canyon. A score of avalanches slide down this portion of the mountains every winter, and the snow was hard and slippery as ice. Mr. Moody reports the road as badly washed out in places. He had a hard trip but landed his horses in Truckee without damage.

An Indian Outbreak.

In the wee sma' hours of Sunday morning a male member of the "Lo" family got on a "high old lonesome" all by himself, and made the neighborhood as noisy as a Zulu battlefield.
Night watchmen Richardson and Pendleton heard the war-whoop of the savage life, and made a combined assault on his lines, but the enemy, seeing he was outnumbered, made a rapid retrograde movement, accelerated by a pistol shot, and succeeded in escaping by a forced march.

Agricultural Society Notes.

The trustees of the Agricultural society did not succeed in arranging the programme and premium list at their meeting Saturday. Messrs. Stevenson and Longley were appointed to revise the premium list and report at the next meeting. The trustees adjourned to meet again June 14th, when the programme and premium list will be arranged.

Going to Show.

The naughty blondes of Madame Rentz' troupe will cater to the sinful tastes of Reno's ungodly at Kimball's hall to-night. All the cautious married men say they are going to see if it is a proper performance for their wives to witness, and if it is they will take them—next time.

Accept Thanks.

Al. Jose did not forget the GAZETTE in his new found happiness, as a couple of bottles of champagne left in the sanctum with his compliments will testify to. May he and his bride glide down life's pathway as smoothly as the wine ran down the "prints" throats.

New Paint Store.

Parmer & Co. announce to-day to the many readers of the GAZETTE that they will sell paints and all that is needed to mix and apply them, in quantities large or small. They have a neat and extensive stock displayed on their shelves. Don't send away for goods they will sell you.

Supposed Capture of Tom Lawton.

A man supposed to be Tom Lawton, the accomplice of Trey Dye and Anderson, has been apprehended at Winnemucca. Sheriff Drew, of Sacramento, went through to Winnemucca Sunday morning. He will be on the train to-night with the supposed murderer.

The Excursion Train.

Sunday excursion trains were to commence running from Virginia to Steamboat springs yesterday, but owing to the dangerous illness of John Rapp, the train did not come any farther than Bowers mansion. The train will probably run through next Sunday.

Caught Drumming Without a License.

Constable Avery scooped in Michael Marks, a San Francisco drummer, for selling goods by sample without a license last night. Marks put up $80 for his appearance, and asked that the case be continued until June 20th, which was done.

Nothing to Ground Prosecution.

J. C. Carroll was arrested Saturday on a charge of petit larceny. The case came up before Judge Bowker today, and no evidence appearing to convict the prisoner, he was discharged.

S. N. Davidson does the best work in town. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. To be found two doors west of the postoffice.

AN EX-SENATOR DEAD.

A Soldier in the Union Army and Veteran of the Mexican War.

[Special to the GAZETTE.]

OTTEWA, Iowa, June 2d.—General James Shields died at this place yesterday very suddenly. General Shields was a major general of volunteers in the Mexican war, and served with great distinction, losing an arm at Cherebusco. He was also a brigadier general in the Union army during the rebellion, and was the first officer to successfully cope with Stonewall Jackson. He was sent to the United States senate from three states, Illinois, Minnesota and Missouri. His name was prominently brought before the public some time ago by his unsuccessful competition with Adams, of Kentucky, for the doctorship of the house. Gen. Shields was a native of Ireland.
